Independent Wealth Network named to Newsweek’s America’s Top Financial Advisory Firms 2026

Urbandale, Iowa, March 10, 2026 - - Independent Wealth Network, an independently owned SEC Registered Investment Advisor, is pleased to announce that it has again been recognized as one of America’s Top Financial Advisory Firms 2026 by Newsweek and Plant-A Insights Group. Newsweek and Plant-A Insights Group recognized companies pulled from a shortlist of financial planning firms, evaluating them on asset performance, client performance, adviser expertise and client ratio, breadth of service offerings and conflicts of interest.

“We are honored to be recognized as one of America’s top financial advisory firms for 2026. This achievement is a direct result of our independent investment adviser representative’s continued dedication to serving their clients, and our home office staff. We are committed to transparency, innovation, and our fiduciary obligation to our clients as they navigate their personal financial goals. We are proud to be recognized for this commitment and believe that together everyone achieves more.” – Jeff Zupancic, CEO

“Financial advisers can help you manage your money, plan for retirement and create short- and long-term goals to keep you feeling financially secure for years to come. Whether you are a young adult looking to start saving or a soon-to-be retiree planning for your next chapter, these professionals are a resource you can rely on.

That is why Newsweek is proud to partner with Plant-A Insights for the second year to bring you America’s Top Financial Advisory Firms 2026, highlighting 1,000 companies across the country to help you achieve your financial goals.

We hope that this ranking helps you find a firm that will help you meet your financial goals, no matter your income, stage of life or savings goals.”

About Independent Wealth Network

Independent Wealth Network is an independently owned, SEC Registered Investment Advisor with 31 investment adviser representatives across the country. Their philosophy is that independence and transparency are the cornerstones for advisors to be fiduciaries and advocates for their clients. Eliminating obligations to any particular products, services, or providers creates the freedom required for principled ethics. Without sacrificing independence, advisors can communicate as a network. When faced with an issue requiring specialized knowledge or expertise, an experienced peer becomes a valuable asset.
